A new and exciting opportunity has arisen for an experienced SEN and Learning Support Manager to join Appleton Academy.

Appleton Academy is part of Exceed Academies Trust, which currently consists of fourteen academies; ten primary schools, an all-through primary-to-secondary academy, two alternative provision academies (Primary and Secondary), and a specialist setting for children/young people who suffer from social, emotional and mental health difficulties. The Trust has an excellent reputation within Bradford and beyond, and an outstanding track record of supporting staff in developing their careers through specialist training lead by the Exceed Teaching School Hub and our Outstanding SCITT.

The successful candidate will;

- Work under the line management of the Deputy Head Teacher for SEN and Learning Support to manage the learning support provision and support programmes, which enable access to learning for children and young people.
- Manage the integration of pupils with special and complex needs into lessons and equip them with the skills necessary to succeed.
- Where appropriate liaise with other mainstream environments or alternative provisions to provide.

The essential requirements of this role are;

- Experience of working with young people in Secondary Education.
- Good standard of education, equivalent to Level 3.
- GCSE qualification in both English and Mathematics Grade C.
- Relevant training / qualifications in supporting pupils with SEND.
- Experience of working with young people in a Secondary school learning environment.
- Experience in working with pupils with SEND.
- Knowledge of the SEN Code of Practice.
- Experience of managing the annual review process and paperwork for pupils with EHCPs.
- Knowledge and experience of a wide range of specialist SEND agencies.
- Ability to effectively supervise young people.

Closing date: Friday 21st March at 10am

Interview date: Wednesday 24th March
